What Civic Improvements are Needed in Grayling?

Essay Contest Open for School Pupils PRIZES OFFERED

What civic improvements are needed in Grayling? The Avalanche is offering the pupils of Grayling the privilege of answering.

A $2.00 cash prize is offered for the best answer, and $1.00 for the second best. Impartial judges will be asked to judge the contest, and the winning essays will be published in the Avalanche. All essays must be in our hands not later than May 15th.

Contestants are requested to limit their essays to not more than 500 words. Special attention should be given to suggestions for improving Grayling that are sensible and practicable.

We hope to have at least ten entries in the contest. Here is an opportunity to be of real service to our city.

PLEASURE AND WORK
By THOMAS ARKLE CLARK
Dean of Men, University of Illinois.

I HAVE often heard it said of students in college that their instructors were so unreasonably giving them difficult assignments to study that they had no time for their regular work, meaning, of course, that unless you are bright and quick and know better than the average how to apportion your time when you have to work up your studies you have no time for pleasures and the extra-curricular work of college.

There are a great many people who are so obsessed with pleasure that they can find no time for work. Pleasure is a good thing, but we are giving more time to it now than we have ever before.

Out in Fairfield, Iowa, now, if you don't get the family washing on the line before noon, you are likely to run into trouble. If the weekly ironing drags on beyond luncheon time, or whatever they call the meal in the middle of the day in that village, you are likely to have a call from a member of the police force. The sweeping must be done in the morning so that the afternoon may be free for the interrupted transmission of what ever is on the air. Afternoons and evenings are reserved for radio owners.

This is what the newspapers said a few weeks ago:
"The new ordinance, forbidding the use of electrical appliances which interfere with radio sets between noon and midnight, went into effect today and owners of receiving sets, with the town officials, are keeping vigilant watch to see that the first unnecessary and unlawful interference with their daily programs."

"New generators of static and other noises, housewives with washing machines or vacuum cleaners which produce static in neighbors' loud speakers—owners of any electrical appliances which interfere with radio reception—must finish their work before noon or be subject to a maximum penalty of $100 fine or thirty days in jail."

"As the only exception, physicians will be allowed to use X-ray machines in case of emergency."

These are a certain satisfaction in knowing that physicians may still pursue their noble calling during the afternoons even though it does interfere somewhat with the pleasure of the radio fan. When I was a boy and lived in the country it was not unusual for a physician to get up at night when the regular work of the day was over. All sensible people in recent years have learned that they receive more sympathetic attention if they confine their serious illnesses to daylight hours. It would seem that physicians should be able to receive treatment only in the morning. Possibly it may come to that later as the first for pleasure grows more intense.

On Prince Edward's Island until very recent years automobiles were kept on the public thoroughfares on Sundays and market days in order that they might not interfere with the religious and business interests of those who were driving horses into town. This was the inhibition of pleasure in order that business and spiritual matters might not be interfered with. We are coming to the point, I am afraid, however, where if work interferes with pleasure it will have to step aside.

Storms on the Sun
The flames of fire which shoot out from the surface of the sun are often ten times as long as the earth's diameter and extend into its vicinity have been seen one flame which measured more than 80,000 miles and traveled at the rate of 8,000 miles a minute. These flames are soon only through a specially constructed instrument.

Stars in Daytime
The stars are shining all day long just as they do at night and the reason we do not see them is because the sun is so much closer that we are dazzled by its brightness. During a total eclipse of the sun the stars are visible to the earth even though it is midday.

MERCY HOSPITAL AID SOCIETY is asking that the County Board of Supervisors appropriate annually the sum of $1,500 toward the expense of operation. To indicate the general sentiment of the people on the question petitions were passed and hundreds signed asking that the Board grant the request.

Hospitals everywhere have to be endowed or otherwise aided financially in order to exist. This is no guess work but is a fact and can easily be proven. Hospitals are a losing proposition. What are we to do? Shall the hospitals be closed or shall the tax payers help to pay the cost of maintenance? One thing is certain, the money has to be raised from some source. Shall we expect individuals to pay the costs, or shall the expense be shared equally in accordance with the wealth of the property owners? Or shall the hospital management meet the patients at the door and ask "Have you the money with which to pay your bill?" Or shall the hospital close its doors?

It is for the supervisors to decide the question as to whether or not the tax payers are going to assume a part of the burden of keeping the hospital in Grayling. In the first place the members of the Board should determine whether or not the hospital is a needed institution, and it does seem that there should be no question as to its great importance to the people of this county. We have heard opinions expressed that the hospital is very much needed, and that it would be better that any other institution except the school be lost rather than the hospital.

Let's look at this matter in a sensible way. Hundreds can testify to the need of a hospital here. We already have an exceptionally good one of which any community may justly be envious. It means protection to the people. It means life and health. It is life insurance for those of us who reside here; it means protection for those who have summer homes in this county. There are people coming to this part of the state annually who are able to pay for any service that may be required, especially such as may pertain to their health, of the health of their families. Does a well established and well managed hospital mean anything to their security and contentment? It does, decidedly so. People of that type value a good hospital as an asset. The hospital means good doctors; with a hospital we couldn't possibly hope to keep skilled physicians and surgeons. That's of much value too to the community.

It's worth a lot to Grayling to keep Mercy hospital here. The cost is little compared to the great good it does. The Hudson Post-Gazette only last week stated that the City Council has passed a resolution appropriating annually $5,000 for their hospital. Hudson is a city of 2464 inhabitants—14 more than Grayling. If the success were drawing regular money's salaries the $1,500 asked for Mercy is anywhere near enough to support the hospital. While there seems to be some opposition to the appropriation, especially, we understand, in Frederic, we believe it should be passed. It means keeping Mercy hospital here or no hospital at all. We hope there will be unanimous favor for it on the Board of Supervisors.

Grayling has a Federal flying field that means much to this community. The army regulations demand that flying fields be located not more than three miles from a hospital.

Local News

Lyda Milks has been laid up the past few days with a sprained ankle. Sunday and Monday at the Grayling Hotel. "Dressed to Kill", a William Fox production.

Mrs. John Stephen, Sr., and son Lacey have returned from spending the winter months in the west and report a most enjoyable trip and time while there.

Arthur Fox of Frederic announced the marriage of his daughter, Alice, to Mr. Leo Bonner of Detroit, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bonner of Flint, which took place in Detroit April the seventh.

Last Sunday and Monday evenings theatre-goers enjoyed the moving pictures of the toboggan slide at the Grayling Opera House. In one scene "Rube" Babbit looms up in sight on his snow shoes. In all they were fine pictures of the slide.

Mrs. Frank Tetu opened her home last evening to the members of St. Mary's Altar society and their husbands, when a sumptuous pot luck dinner was served. Following the dinner cards were enjoyed for which prizes were awarded. It was a very pleasant gathering and everyone seemed to enjoy themselves very much. Covers were laid for 34.

The carnival given at the school gymnasium last Saturday night put on by the Campfire girls, was attended by quite a large crowd. The girls had varied amusements and cleverly gotten up booths and although there was no admission to the big tent, one was taxed whenever entering a booth, the chamber of horrors or the like. There was a shooting gallery, a fortune-teller and you could have a real airplane ride. When you became hungry or thirsty your hunger and thirst was quenched at a coffee and hot dog stand. Everyone present enjoyed the affair very much.

DELL WALT PASSED AWAY TUESDAY

Dell Walt, age 32 years, died at Mercy Hospital Tuesday night at 10:30 o'clock, from self-inflicted wounds, when during a period of insanity on January 16th he attempted to take his own life.

Since that time he had been a patient at the hospital, where every effort was made to save him. The wound was in the chest and the bullet grazing the heart and lodging very near to the spine. Paralysis followed and there was apparently little hope that he would ever be able to be about again. He was repentant and sorry for his deed and was a patient and helpful sufferer right up to within a few hours before he passed away. Mrs. Walt was with him almost constantly and helped to cheer him on in his fight to recover. Friends were most kind to him and always there were plenty of flowers and other favors to keep his room bright. On Monday it happened that he could hold off the inevitable time no longer. He requested that his funeral be conducted by the Masonic order of which he was a member and requested that he be laid to rest beside the body of Joe Krass. The two were warm friends as well as brothers-in-law, and had spent much time together.

J. Dell Walt was born at Paines Station, Saginaw county, February 12, 1896. He attended the public school in Saginaw and about ten years ago the family moved to Bay City, where he was employed as a laborer in the lumber industry.

Mr. Walt was at one time a member of the Bay City Produce Co. of Bay City. Later he transferred to the Metro Food Co. for six years and for the last six months before his misfortune was a salesman for the Fox Film Corporation, Chicago. He had many friends wherever he went. Everybody liked Dell. He had a sunny disposition that attracted and held good friends and one never heard unpleasant remarks about him come from him. He was a good man and also was a loyal member of Grayling Post 104 American Legion, having served his country in the World war.

The deceased is survived by his wife and parents, Mr. and Mrs. James H. Walt of Bay City and the following brothers and sisters: Frank Walt, Bay City; Mrs. C. H. Townsend, Charles and George Walt, Detroit; Mrs. George M. Weaver and Arthur Walt, Chicago; and Peter Walt, St. Louis, Mo. With exception of the latter all will be present at the funeral.

The funeral service for Dell Walt will be held at Michelson Memorial church Friday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock and will be conducted by Rev. John Wilfred Greenwood, pastor of the church, who will be assisted by the Masonic fraternity. The remains will be taken to Lansing for burial Saturday morning.

DOMESTIC SUGAR INDUSTRY FACES SERIOUS CRISIS

Philippine Product Made With Cheap Labor and Duty Free Called Menace.

Chicago.—Rising flood of Philippine sugar entering the United States duty free has confronted the domestic sugar industry with the gravest economic crisis in years, according to W. L. Perkins, president of the Great Western Sugar company of Denver.

"In view of the resolution introduced by Congressman Timmerlake of Colorado to protect the domestic industry against the increasing invasion of Philippine sugar by permitting not more than 500,000 tons annually to enter free," said Mr. Perkins, "Philippine Commissioners Galabon and Guevara have attempted to convince congress that the domestic industry is not menaced by unlimited imports of duty-free sugar from the islands."

"The statement of the commission erg that from 1923 to 1926 the annual average export of sugar was 326,280 tons is entirely unconvincing. They neglected to state that between 1923 and 1926 Philippine exports to the United States increased from 100,000 tons to 443,747 tons, a gain of more than 340 per cent."

"Domestic sugar companies have recently found it difficult to make ends meet. Continuation of unlimited duty-free imports from the Philippines, which are not legally defined as an integral part of the United States, may ultimately wipe out an income to our continental farmers of $100,000,000 annually and a large investment in factories."

FOOD PRODUCT ADDS TO FARMER REVENUE

New York.—Margarine is a food product of peculiar interest not only to the country's housewives but to 5,000,000 producers of live stock in the nation.

To the home manager it represents an economical way of whitening down the food bill. From the live-stock raiser's viewpoint, increased consumption of margarine means additional revenue. Since certain fats of beef and hogs are worth more when used in the manufacture of margarine than for any other purpose.

The production in the United States of 14,501,920 pounds of colored margarine for the year ending July 30, 1927, meant millions of dollars more revenue to farmers than if no margarine had been produced. Margarine is primarily an animal product in the making of which oils made from the choice fats of beef and pork are used. These are combined with small quantities of the highest grade of refined peanut, cottonseed and coconut oils and blended with milk, salt and some times butter to produce the finished product.

In the countries of Europe, margarine is much more of a recognized food than in America. The average Dane eats 43½ pounds of margarine annually, the Norwegians 35½, the Hollander 15 2/3, the German 12½, and the English 11½ pounds. Per capita consumption in the United States is only 2 pounds yearly.

Interesting Events In Grayling 23 Years Ago

INTERESTING ITEMS OF NEWS GATHERED FROM THE FILES OF THE AVALANCHE OF 23 YEARS AGO.

Thursday, March 16, 1905
Miss Lillian Bates is spending a few weeks on Grandpa Bates' farm in Maple Forest.

Mrs. J. B. Woodburn was called to Eaton Rapids Saturday morning on account of the sudden death of her mother.

Miss Cora Vandewater returned to her parents at Owosso her school at Johannesburg having closed on account of scarlet fever.

O. Palmer went to Chicago Saturday for the balance of the Avalanche equipment. It will take a little time yet to get it all in, but it is coming.

Born—On Wednesday, March 8, to Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Claggott, of Johannesburg, a daughter, Sid weighs almost a ton and is doing as well as can be expected.

With the mercury 5 degrees below zero Saturday morning Charles Ingerson claimed he saw a robin. As we were anxious to realize that spring was coming we asked "what brand" he used that morning, but he wouldn't tell, and so we continued to shiver.

Of course the band concert Friday evening last week was a success in every way—financially, artistically and in point of attendance and appreciation. "William Tell" was well received and Grayling certainly has a right to be proud of a musical organization composed almost entirely of home talent, that can so successfully render such a composition as Rossini's masterpiece which has been arranged by the most critical musical audiences of the great cities of the world. The "Angelic Chorus" was particularly well handled, and there was no lack of appreciation by the audience of every number on the programme. The band boys wish to say thank you to the public for the good attendance.

Only thirty-nine votes were cast at the village election Monday. Only one ticket and everybody satisfied.

The following are the lucky ones: President—H. A. Bauman.

Clerk—H. P. Olson.

Assessor—J. J. Collen.

Treasurer—M. Hanson.

Trustees—C. O. McCullough, W. F. Brink and Axel Michelson.

Died—In this village, March 12, 1905, Daniel Heath, aged 92 years, 10 months and 10 days.

About 6 o'clock Sunday afternoon two heavy freight trains met in head-on collision about a mile below Chene, with such force that the engines were thoroughly impacted in front of each other, running boards, rods, etc., made into junk, tenders and several cars completely wrecked, the debris was turned to remove the wreckage.

Conductor Haywood, with Engineer George O'Brien, going south, and O'Brien and his fireman jumped and the fireman escaped unhurt, but the engine in some way fractured an arm in five places between the wrist and elbow. Both were taken to Bay City and at this writing are reported comfortable. The accident was caused by the operator at Roscommon failing to display the signal ordered by telegraph.

Died—March 7th, at her home in Royal Oak, Mrs. Barbara Erb, mother of Mrs. L. Fournier. Mrs. Erb was born in Germany, Dec. 17th 1820. With her husband and two small children she came to America in 1849, settling first in Albany N. Y. Later they came to Michigan, finally making a home in Royal Oak, in which home Mrs. Erb lived for the last 40 years.

Last Thursday night nineteen members of Crawford tent, No. 192, K. G. T. M. M., went up to Frederic to give the new Frederic tent, No. 927, a brotherly lift in getting started.

It proved a delightful occasion in every way, socially and fraternally. The Crawford degree team put an extra polish on their usually impressive handling of the fine initiatory work of the order, and both the candidate and the charter members were sure that Maccabeanism meant something when the ceremony was over.

Mrs. S. Phelps has gone to Holly and vicinity for a visit with her parents and sister.

Geo. L. Alexander and M. Hanson, delegates from this county to the judicial convention at Standish last week.

Fred Alexander is home from the University for a rest. He has been too strenuous in his study, for his health, but got there in his work.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Winslow, of Frederic, were called to mourn the loss of their baby girl, last week, which was buried in our village cemetery.

Born—Thursday, March 16, to Mr. and Mrs. Peter J. Johnson, a daughter. This is No. 12. They are young yet. Carry the news to "Teddy."

N. Michelson is putting the steel ceiling on the store room which he kindly allowed us to occupy after the avalanche fire until we moved into our new home. He will hardly know the place after his improvements are completed.

A quite home wedding was celebrated at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Holbrook last Sunday, the event being the marriage of their daughter Mary, and Mr. C. F. Stewart of Vassar, Perry Ostrander, Esq., an uncle of the bride, officiating. After a brief visit in Indiana and Ohio they will be "at home" in Vassar.

The coming of the new hardwood flooring plant is undoubtedly assured. It is an immense concern with a capacity of twelve million feet of finished product a year, and a huge payroll of from sixty to seventy thousand dollars a year. We hope in our next issue to give a description more in detail to the industrial interests of our young village.

The new electric-lighting plant installed in the hardware store of A. A. Kraus is an immense success, making one of the best lighted salerooms in the village.

The M. C. R. R. Co. have under consideration the erection of a new round house at this place, with a capacity of twenty-five stalls, and will add the necessary room for tools and repair.

The plans for the plant are now in five places between the wrist and elbow. Both were taken to Bay City and at this writing are reported comfortable. The accident was caused by the operator at Roscommon failing to display the signal ordered by telegraph.

STOP! OBEY THE GOLDEN RULE

By Erwin Greer
(President Greer School of Electrical and Automotive Trades, Chicago, Ill.)
The average man who is bent on buying an automobile or an airplane may ask, as his first question, the price of the conveyance offered him, but the runner-up query is, "What's the power?" or "How fast can she go?"

It has come to be a cardinal passion with the American people, to arrive somewhere in the shortest possible time from a given point of departure. This passion expresses itself most pervasively of course, in automobile circles for the simple reason that there are so many automobiles. If we do not hear so much about the airplane, traveling is so because airplanes are still confined to the few.

Nerve specialists are considerably perturbed by this latter-day mania for speed. They find that it tends to make men and women restless and high strung and to reduce their capacity for relaxation. The average person will be inclined to say to the physician's warning, "I should worry."

Very little is heard these days of speed competition by railroad trains. The competition rather has been in the direction of reducing the hazards of railroad travel. The companies have installed all sorts of safety devices, partly to be sure, because legally required to do so, but more largely of late on their own initiative because they believed it to be good policy and good business.

After more than a quarter of a century of struggling on the part of psychologists, educators, city managers, traffic officers, police chiefs and such, a universal rule for traffic regulation at last has been found.

Cautiously enough, the new rule dates back several thousands of years before automobiles, semaphores, police chiefs and such things had come into being. In fact, the new rule is one of the oldest precepts in the world—one that can be applied successfully to the whole range of human conduct.

Credit must be given to a bright mind in eastern cities, that is where the latest discovery originated. But the thought is spreading rapidly, and now in some California cities this rule is posted in taxicabs, omnibuses and all sorts of vehicles. This new-old rule is none other than our ancient friend, the schoolboy copybook, the Golden Rule.

Chocolate that appears white on the outside has been kept in an over-warm place, so that some of the fat has melted and come to the surface. It is not injured in any way for use.

There is no reason why fresh or properly preserved fish should not be eaten at the same meal as milk. Fish and milk are often cooked together in the form of milk chowders or creamed dishes.

Work the butter for sandwiches in a cream, but do not melt it. Cut the bread into thin even slices. If you are going to trim off the crusts, do not butter too near them. Bread for sandwiches is best when about 24 hours old.

Dandelion greens can be gathered very early in the season, when they are young, tender, and least bitter. Owing to this bitterness of flavor, it is a good plan to combine the dandelion greens with other vegetables or meats which modify it. The plan of cooking these greens in several washings is not recommended because much valuable mineral matter is thrown away, vitamins are destroyed, and the greens are overcooked. Raw dandelion leaves or those cooked without water are less bitter than those that have been boiled. Always iron with the thread of the goods, and iron until the garment is dry. Otherwise it will nicker. Shiny gloss on hems, tucks, or seams can be removed by moistening a piece of cheesecloth with clear water, wringing it dry, and wiping it quickly over the shiny surface.

Mrs. Sims—I'd rather cut her and bar the chin.

COULD DO BETTER

He—Now, listen me, for instance—
She—No, thanks, I can do better.

LOSING COLOR

Meiher—Don't you think Mary is losing color?
Thid (grimly)—Yes, every time she has a caller I notice the loss.

She—I never see you smoke a cigar with a band.
He—No, that would be too noisy for me.

The State Highway department has removed its repair and construction equipment from the county barn on Cedar street to Roscommon where they have constructed a new building for housing their equipment. The local barn has been rented to the State for several years past, together with trucks and other road machinery. It is claimed by county officials that Crawford county was losing about $1,500 annually on the arrangement and for that reason they had passed a resolution asking the State to give up the lease. Ralph Hanna of the maintenance department says that he doesn't believe the County was losing any money. There has been considerable discussion on the streets about the matter, both pro and con. It looks as though both sides were partly right and partly wrong. A careful check up on the affairs will be made and the real facts ascertained. In the meantime it is hardly fair for any of us to criticize any of the county or the State highway officers. If there is any misunderstanding it will surely right itself. If there have been any irregularities let us hope they will be corrected. This is no time to blame or criticize. When we have confidence that a public official is going to do the right thing, let's back of him whether we think his judgment has been wrong or right. In time everything will be all right and there will be kindly harmony among the people of the old home town.
